

Debra Messing joins PEOPLE Publisher Kathy Kayse and President Peter Bauer (left); Susan Fleitz, Senior Vice President, Advertising, The Mirage Hotel & Casino; and John LeBoutillier, Vice President-General Manager, Balance Bar.

Kelsey Grammer and wife Camille make their exit with a SAG Awards gift bag.

Bernie Mac taking a turn at the role of DJ.

Hollywood icon Clint Eastwood with his SAG Life Achievement Award.

Inside the PEOPLE party tent at Hollywood's Shrine Exhibition Center.

AN AWARD-WINNING EVENING

Hollywood parties with PEOPLE at the Screen Actors Guild Awards

It was A-list all night long at the 2003 Screen Actors Guild Awards last month, when the stars came out to shine and to honor their craft at the actors-only tribute to the finest performers in film and television.

For the seventh year, PEOPLE was proud to co-host the SAG post-awards gala along with the charitable Entertainment Industry Foundation.

And as in years past, PEOPLE and EIF made a donation to SAG's philanthropic arm, the Screen Actors Guild Foundation.

Joining PEOPLE and EIF for this dazzling evening were the gala's presenting sponsor The Mirage Hotel & Casino, and additional sponsor Balance Bar.

EIF ENTERTAINMENT
INDUSTRY FOUNDATION™

BALANCE BAR